Ebuka Obi: The life you live is not yours

....it's all vanity, nothing worth dying for

By Precious Ndunwere

The Spiritual Director of Zion Prayer Movement Outreach (ZPMO), Evangelist Ebuka Obi, has advised sinners to embrace genuine repentance and surrender to Jesus Christ in order to make heaven when they die.

He gave the advice while delivering a thought-provoking sermon at the 2025 ODIESHI programme which took place at the Lagos ground of the ministry from December 12 to 14.

He noted that there was nothing on earth worth dying for, hence everyone must strive to feed the spirit rather than the flesh.

According to him, once the flesh was dead and buried, it would become food for termites, while criminals would dig open the grave to remove whatever valuables that were buried with the dead.

Evangelist Ebuka stated that the end of the year was an auspicious period for the living to take stock of their lives, knowing that one day, everyone would die and appear before God to give account of their stewardship on earth.

In his words, "This life you are living is not your life. A day is coming when the owner of life will come to take it over".

He likened life on earth to a pilgrimage, adding that one day of silence is coming when the owner of life would come to say, "Pens up", signifying the end of the examination period for the pilgrim.

He called on those indulging in all manner of criminalities, including fraud (Yahoo yahoo), to repent and stop the acquisition of evil money.

Last year's ODIESHI recorded another set of breathtaking testimonies, and it was attended by over 2 million people despite that the three-day programme was also streamed live on various social media platforms - YouTube, TikTok, Instagram and Facebook - apparently to minimise the deluge of Zionites who would want to

From streets to shelter 12 mentally challenged persons rescued

By Bridget Chigbufue

In a society where many mentally unwell individuals are often abandoned, the Seraphic Psychiatric Hospital and Old People's Home in Aguleri, Anambra State, stands as a remarkable symbol of compassion, restoration, and hope.

Officially commissioned in September 2025 by the Governor of Anambra State, Professor Chukwuma Soludo, the facility has continued to operate at full capacity, steadily fulfilling its humanitarian mandate.

Within a short period, the hospital has rescued about twelve individuals from streets across the Southeast - an achievement that speaks volumes about the urgency and significance of its mission.

Strategies For Building Generational Wealth(Proverbs 13:22)

The Mindset & Discipline of Wealth Creation (Proverbs 13:22)

In the first edition of Financial Freedom Blueprint, we established that financial freedom is not a product of luck or sudden riches, but a deliberate journey anchored on divine principles, discipline, and ethical conduct. In this second edition, we shall examine a critical foundation upon which lasting and generational wealth is built - the wealth mindset and financial discipline

OPENING THOUGHT

Imagine waking up every morning knowing that the money you've earned is already planting seeds for your grandchildren's futures. That's not a fairy tale—it's the promise tucked inside a wealth- mindset and the discipline to nurture it, guided by timeless wisdom from Scriptures.

THE MIND- SET THAT MAKES MONEY GROW

"As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." – Proverbs 23:7

Your thoughts are the invisible architects of your bank account. A poverty- mindset whispers "I'll never have enough," while a wealth- mindset declares, "God's provision is abundant, and I steward it wisely." Catch yourself when you say "I can't afford it" and replace it with "How can I make this work?"

Romans 12:2 tells us to "be transformed by the renewing of your mind." Renewing means daily soaking in promises of provision (Philippians 4:19).

Practical Step: Write down three wealth-affirmations each morning—e.g., "I am a wise steward of God's resources." Say them aloud, feel them, and watch the doors open.

DISCIPLINE = THE BRIDGE TO FREEDOM

Wealth isn't built on sporadic windfalls; it's built on consistent, disciplined action. Think of it like a farmer who plants seeds day after day, trusting the harvest season. He is also faced with the temptation of eating up all the harvest. Trust me. I am a farmer. I use to have the biggest plantain farm in Ijil, Epe, Lagos

Budget like a Steward: Track every Naira; allocate 10% to give, 10% to save, and the rest to spend wisely. This is where we youths especially Nigerians have failed. We are so proud. Thinking our wealth primarily belongs to us. Not knowing that money can develop wings any time if you don't obey financial and spiritual principles guiding money.

Automate Obedience: Set up automatic transfers to your savings/investment accounts the day you receive income.

Thank God for the micro finance bank applications. I use MoniePoint for my trading account. You can actually configure your app to save a certain predetermined amount on daily basis and over a period of time such as one year. The app religiously deducts the money while you are working and saves same at a much better interest rate. Every day I save N10,000 and I have configured it for one year for my child in Afe Babalola University tuition fees. I have other savings programs such as our traditional 'ajor'. If you plan well, there is no how you will not meet your obligations as they fall due. This is the wealth-mindset.

Delay Gratification: When a desire pops up, give it a 24-hour "cool-off" period. Often, the urge fuses away, leaving your budget intact. We are in a world with several fabulous products. All kinds of adverts pop up on our phones. You must have a handle on your appetite on daily basis. This is where budgeting plays a very important role.

Eternal Perspective: Store up "treasures in heaven" (Matthew 6:20) by investing in kingdom purposes - education, business, and charity - knowing that spiritual dividends outlast earthly riches. This is where our Spiritual Director, Evangelist, Chukwuebuka Anozie Obi has given us more than enough lead. What he is doing through Seraphic Foundation is worthy of emulation. Building free hospitals across the five states of the Eastern Region. Imo State Orphanage Home has taken off. Anambra State Psychiatric Hospital is making wave. Abia State Psychiatric and Maternity hospital will soon come on stream. The laborers are very few. This is why he has the goal of building mighty men for His work.

Prayer + Action = Momentum: Pray for wisdom (James 1:5), then step out in faith—start that side hustle, enroll in a financial literacy course, or invest in a small business. The year is just beginning. Our Spiritual Director has advised us to set up our 2026 goals. He told us last two weeks he has completed his own. Let's emulate him and tap from the Grace in Zion Ministry and be among his 'mighty men' and serve in various capacities while solidifying our personal financial endeavors with courage.

Quick-Start Checklist (What to Do Today)

Action Points:

- 1 Write your wealth- affirmation (e.g., "I steward abundance responsibly").
- 2 Set up an automatic 10% savings transfer for the next one year
- 3 List one skill you'll learn this month to boost income.
- 4 Read and meditate on the various Bible verses and consider their application to your current financial situations
- 5 Share this blueprint with a trusted friend that will not be jealous of your growth or your spouse or certain child that shares in your dreams and aspirations and pray together and review progress on periodic basis.

Our Lady's Grotto at Zion City, Ngor Okpala commissioned

Bridget Chigbufue

The Spiritual Director of Zion Ministry, Evangelist Ebuka Obi, officially commissioned a newly constructed Grotto at the Ministry's permanent site in Ngor Okpala on 17th January, 2026

The Grotto — described as a striking and prayerfully symbolic structure — was fully sponsored by Mr & Mrs Ralph Udeogu.

Their contribution has been widely regarded as a meaningful addition to the spiritual landscape of the developing site.

During the brief ceremony, Evangelist Obi offered prayers and dedicated the structure, emphasizing the importance of sacred spaces that encourage reflection, prayer, and deeper spiritual connection.

The commissioning marked another step in the steady transformation of the Ngor Okpala grounds into what the Spiritual Director has envisioned as "Zion City", The "Dubai" of the South East— a place expected to host major gatherings while fostering an atmosphere of worship and devotion & Tourism.

Observers noted that the addition of the Grotto not only enriches the physical environment but also reflects the collective commitment of supporters toward advancing the Ministry's long-term vision.

converge on Zion ground for the historic event.

All the available spaces at Zion and the adjoining streets were filled to the brim.

The heavy human and vehicular traffic to the event explained the hike in transport fares as well as the difficulty in getting hotel accommodation around the venue of the event.

There were assorted mantles and sacramentals such as spiritual books, Seraphic Oil, Seraphic water, Seraphic Candles, Odieshi handkerchiefs and Vests on sale to the delight of the faithful.

ODIESHI remains an important programme in the calendar of ZPMO as it officially marks the end of the year's activities for the non-denominational ministry which has continued to record exponential membership growth in Nigeria and beyond.

The power-packed and soul-saving event provides divine protection for the faithful travelling during the Christmas and New Year celebrations as well as equip them for special blessings and favour in the coming year. Despite the dangers associated with end of year travels, the programme was hugely successful as there were no reported negative incidents.

Zion Ministry's Virgins programme sparks mixed reactions online

In a world where young people are often told to "go with the flow," Zion Prayer Movement Outreach (ZPMO) decided to do the exact opposite — and the result was a programme that has left many inspired, others surprised, and social media buzzing with mixed reactions.

The Zion ministry recently hosted its very first "Virgins Programme," a gathering created to celebrate young people who are choosing self-discipline and intentional living in an age of constant pressure to fit in.

According to the Spiritual Director of ZPMO Evangelist Ebuka Obi, the vision was simple: create a joyful and supportive space where youths could feel proud of their choices rather than awkward about them.

The two-day programme welcomed hundreds of participants from ages 14 and above. The atmosphere blended laughter, learning, Prayers, heartfelt moments, and powerful encouragement — proving that conversations about values do not always have to be stiff or uncomfortable.

Some attendees shared stories that drew both empathy and admiration. A few spoke about being teased for "still waiting," while others joked about constantly dodging curious friends. Yet beneath the humor was a clear message: standing by one's values requires remarkable confidence.

For many, the biggest relief was discovering they were far from alone.

Teenagers also joined the conversations, opening up about school life, friendship circles, and the quiet pressure to follow the crowd just to feel included. The programme responded with guidance, reassurance, and practical wisdom for navigating those moments with self-respect.

Participants described the gathering as refreshing

This initiative represents a bold step toward addressing mental health challenges, while restoring dignity to some of society's most vulnerable people.

The vision behind the facility is that of the founder of Seraphic Homes Foundation and Spiritual Director of Zion Ministry, Evangelist Chukwuebuka Anozie Obi. What was once a dream has now materialized into an all-expense-paid psychiatric institution where care is not determined by a patient's financial capacity but by their need for healing.

Each rescued individual carries a unique story.

The first was a man from Nteje in Anambra State, followed by an elderly man found at the busy Onitsha Main Market. Among the most touching cases is that of a heavily pregnant woman rescued from Umumbo in Ayamelum Local Government Area. Safely admitted into the facility, she has since given birth to a healthy baby boy, and her relatives have already come forward to reconnect with her.

Precious, from Edo State, was picked up in Nteje, while Ifeoma was found in Awka and her roots later traced to Enugu-Ezike. Uche was rescued from Imo State, alongside others, including Joel and a woman from Awommammain Owerri.

In addition, three more individuals—a man and a woman from Awka, and another woman from Enugu-Ukwu—were brought into the hospital's care. Another patient was rescued from Ogbunike along the Onitsha–Enugu Expressway, bringing the total to twelve, with the rescue mission still ongoing across the South East region.

These efforts highlight a broader mission: to gradually rid the streets of abandoned and mentally unwell individuals, nurse them back to health, and prepare them for reintegration into society after thorough evaluation. Beyond treatment, the initiative seeks to empower beneficiaries with sustainable skills that will support their independence and help prevent relapse into homelessness.

Notably, every aspect of care at the facility is provided completely FREE OF CHARGE—from medical tests and medications to feeding, accommodation, and continuous supervision. The hospital maintains 24-hour security, uninterrupted power and water supply, and even a chapel that supports the spiritual well-being of residents. Such comprehensive care reflects a deliberate commitment to holistic healing.

The Seraphic Psychiatric Hospital, Aguleri, is more than a medical facility; it is humanity in action. By restoring hope to the forgotten and providing them free comprehensive care, it sets a powerful example of what purposeful vision and compassion can achieve. As the initiative continues to expand its reach, it deserves recognition, commendation, and collective support—reminding us all that the strength of any society is measured by how it cares for its most vulnerable members.

Evangelist Ebuka Obi donates four Transformers to Ubulu communities

The Spiritual Director of Zion Prayer Movement Outreach, Evangelist Ebuka Obi, has donated four 500 kVA transformers to the four autonomous communities of Ubulu in Imo state, essentially to enhance security, stimulate economic activities and improve overall quality of life.

The cleric disclosed that the donation followed reports that the communities had been without electricity due to the absence of functional transformers, a situation he described as "unacceptable for a steadily growing population."

To address the challenge, the transformers, connected to a three-phase line, would be installed across the four autonomous communities that make up Ubulu in Oru West Local Government Area of Imo State.

The four communities to benefit from the generous donation include Ubulu Ihejiofor Ancient Kingdom, Ezizama/Ubaha Autonomous Community, Amorie/Umuchukwu Autonomous Community, and Umunna/Amadihi Autonomous Community, with each receiving one unit.

He emphasized that access to stable electricity remains fundamental to sustainable development, noting that the project underscores a deliberate commitment to the welfare and long-term progress of the people.

The electrification initiative forms part of a broader infrastructure drive within the area.

Construction is currently underway on the road linking

Nobis Primary School to Isseke, a project expected to improve mobility, ease transportation challenges, and stimulate local commerce.

Beyond power and road development, plans are also advancing for a four-deck free hospital, designed to provide accessible healthcare services to residents regardless of financial status.

According to Evangelist Ebuka Obi, the facility is on course for completion by Easter 2026, by the grace of God.

— a place where serious topics were handled with warmth, hope, and plenty of encouragement.

Unsurprisingly, once news of the event reached the internet, reactions poured in. Supporters applauded the initiative as timely and courageous, while others expressed surprise at the concept. The differing opinions only fueled wider conversations about youth, faith, and the power of personal choices.

For Evangelist Ebuka Obi, however, the reactions are secondary to the mission.

He reaffirmed the ministry's commitment to raising confident, purpose-driven young people and following what he believes to be divine direction in shaping impactful programmes.

With plans already underway for future editions, one thing is clear: the debut of Virgins Programme has done more than host a Programme—it has started a conversation.

Zion's 21 days Foundation Prayer ends in glory, sets tone for 2026

The two-day closing of 21 days Foundation Prayer of Zion Ministry, held on February 7th and 8th, 2026, concluded in a powerful outpouring of worship, prophetic encounters, and spiritual renewal, firmly positioning members for the year ahead. Camp officially opened on Friday, February 6th, as anticipation grew among worshippers arriving from across Nigeria and the diaspora.

Delegations streamed in from Imo, Rivers, Anambra, Abia, Adamawa, and beyond, alongside a strong presence of administrative leaders from various branches—a reflection of the unity and commitment that define the ministry.

From the opening session, the atmosphere was charged with purpose. Deep teachings on reconciliation with God called attendees into a season of reflection, realignment, and spiritual strengthening.

The evening session, held from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., was marked by intense prophetic ministrations, deliverances, and moments that stirred faith among worshippers. Soon after, the midnight watch—from 12:00 a.m. to 5:00 a.m.—carried the momentum forward with fervent prayers, weighty declarations, and testimonies that inspired hope and expectation. Prophetic encounters followed as the Spiritual Director, Evangelist Ebuka Obi, moved among congregants, praying and speaking into lives.

By Sunday, the influx of attendees surpassed expectations. Every available space within Zion was filled, transforming the gathering into a grand expression of thanksgiving for prayers answered and foundations secured.

A significant highlight of the programme was the conclusion of the impactful Fruit Programme, introduced during the prayer season and wrapped up in an atmosphere of gratitude.

One particularly moving testimony came from a young boy who had once depended on crutches. After receiving prayers during the 2025 foundation gathering, he began to walk. Returning one year later, he stood before the congregation walking confidently without assistance—stronger, healthier, and full of life—a moment that drew resounding praise to God.

Many other testimonies of healing and transformation echoed throughout the programme, reinforcing faith and affirming the power of collective prayer.

In all, the two-day Foundation Prayer was a resounding success—a sacred opportunity for believers to set their spiritual footing at the very start of the year. With such fervent prayers laid as a cornerstone, the outlook for 2026 is filled with promise: open doors, breakthroughs, divine favor, and strategies beyond human limitation.

Indeed, when the foundation is strong, the future stands secure. All glory beto God.

Massive crowd, miracles, revelations mark Zion's first Crossover in Imo State

Stories by Bridget Chigbufue

What began as a surprising announcement quickly transformed into one of the most talked-about faith gatherings of the season, as Zion Ministry hosted its Crossover service for the first time at the Zion Permanent Site, Ngor Okpala, Imo State.

At the start of 2025, when the ministry revealed plans to usher Zionites into the New Year from its permanent site, reactions ranged from curiosity to excitement. For many followers, the move signaled growth while also raising practical questions about accessibility, safety, and the site's readiness for the ministry's famously large turnout.

Those uncertainties soon gave way to anticipation.

Expectations gave way to reality

By December 30, 2025, streams of worshippers had already begun arriving at the expansive grounds, some camping overnight as final preparations gathered momentum.

When the long-awaited night arrived, the turnout exceeded expectations. The permanent site came alive with coordinated logistics, bright illumination, and a visible security presence as multitudes gathered in unity to welcome the New Year.

A Symbolic Crossing

The significance of the event was further reflected in a symbolic instruction from the Spiritual Director, Evangelist Ebuka Obi, who encouraged attendees to come with an item they had used throughout the year and replace it with something new as they stepped into 2026 — a gesture representing renewal, hope and fresh beginnings.

The service featured fervent worship, prophetic declarations, and deeply emotional moments that many participants later described as unforgettable.

Ministration That Stirred the Atmosphere

Adding remarkable depth to the worship experience was the ministration of renowned gospel minister, Ambassador Chinyere Udoma, whose powerful praise session stirred the atmosphere and prepared hearts for the night's spiritual engagements. Her presence brought an added sense of celebration and reverence to an already momentous gathering.

Several attendees recounted profound prophetic encounters throughout the service, as prayers were offered for individuals and families in search of restoration and direction. In moments, guided by what ministry sources described as divine leading, the Spiritual Director gave out millions of naira as a point of contact — a symbolic act of faith aimed at unlocking upliftment, breakthroughs, and timely support. Many present viewed the gesture as a spiritually motivated intervention designed to bless lives and meet pressing needs.

One particularly moving moment involved a final-year student of Alvan Ikoku

College of Education who had depended on crutches for mobility for a prolonged period following a sudden fall in school. During the general deliverance and healing ministration — a session marked by intense spiritual engagement across the congregation — many worshippers responded emotionally as prayers were offered.

When a call was later made for those who believed they had received instant healing to step forward, the student emerged walking without the aid of her crutches. The sight stirred awe and heartfelt reactions among attendees, becoming one of the night's most memorable moments.

This amongst many other instant healing testimonies were recorded that night.

Order, Vigilance, and Safety

The programme, also, highlighted the importance of proactive security and spiritual vigilance. During the service, a prophetic revelation indicated that an individual in the congregation was carrying a sharp weapon. Following the announcement, the person willingly stepped forward, with his face shielded from cameras, after which security personnel calmly intervened and confiscated the item, ensuring the gathering continued peacefully.

Many attendees later expressed gratitude for the orderly response and the safe conclusion of the event.

Evangelist takes Outreach to Makoko community

For the first time in many years — reminiscent of the days of "Morning Cry," as fondly described by Evangelist Ebuka Obi — the Spiritual Director of Zion Ministry, stepped beyond the familiar grounds of large gatherings to reconnect with one of his earliest passions: street evangelism.

The rapid expansion of Zion Ministry in recent years had naturally placed increasing demands on his time and presence, limiting opportunities for the kind of morning outreach he once carried out often. Yet when the chance came to reach a community in need of care, attention, and hope, he embraced it without hesitation.

In November 2025, as part of a mission centered on love, goodwill, and soul-winning, Evangelist Obi paid a surprise visit to the Makoko community in Lagos, accompanied by a small team.

In a profound expression of compassion and celebration, he supported the community with a donation of ₦5 million Cash alongside over ₦4 million worth of Food supplies including tubers of yam, bags of rice, cartons of noodles, and other essential provisions. Copies of the Bible were also distributed, reinforcing the spiritual purpose of the outreach.

Zion City takes shape as Altar, development accelerate in Ngor Okpala

Bridget Chigbufue

What is steadily emerging in Ngor Okpala is more than a construction effort. It is the unfolding vision of what has been described as Zion City, a rapidly developing hub designed to support worship, community life, and long-term institutional growth, with retirees and home-oriented families also under consideration.

During a recent visit on the Spiritual Director, Evangelist

Ebuka Obi, toured the expansive site, where significant building activities are already reshaping the physical landscape. Observers noted the scale of the ongoing work, with over 70 structures reportedly completed within the residential zone alone.

The evolving layout now features residential buildings, newly developed hostels, and restaurant spaces — all contributing to what planners envision as a functional and accommodating environment for future gatherings.

Infrastructure development is progressing in phases. The first phase of sanitary facilities has advanced beyond foundation level, while additional units are underway as part of a broader second phase — reflecting the structured planning guiding the project.

A particularly notable moment during the visit was the Spiritual Director's stop at the designated site for the Zion Altar, a location already mapped out with engineers actively engaged in preliminary works.

He offered prayers and blessings over the grounds, underscoring the spiritual significance of what many view as a defining centerpiece of the emerging city.

Beyond its structural impact, the development is increasingly being viewed through an economic lens. The scale of construction has generated employment opportunities for local youths, supporting livelihoods within surrounding communities. At the same time, the project is attracting entrepreneurs and investors with roots in the Southeast, many of whom see it as a meaningful avenue to reinvest in their homeland.

For observers, the transformation underway in Ngor Okpala reflects more than physical expansion — it signals momentum toward a vision that blends spiritual purpose with community advancement.

As construction continues, Zion City appears poised to evolve into a landmark destination — shaped by both faith and forward-looking development.

USA- based Nigerian healed of nine-year- old dumbness

Stories By Prisca Ikebude

A first- class Nigerian Engineering graduate, Michael Opara, based in the United States of America (USA) was healed of nine- year- old dumbness by Evangelist Ebuka Obi, the Spiritual Director of Zion Ministry.

The excited mother of the healed dumb, Mrs Immaculate Opara and the father, Mr Lawrence Opara, from Oboama, Enyigugu, Mbaize, Imo State, shared the stunning testimony in the Zion Ministry.

The miracle followed the spiritual laying of the Evangelist's hand on the heads of the mother and the dumb son when they visited the Lagos office of the Servant of God, after the 100- day fasting and prayers last year.

Sharing the testimony on the ZPMO's praying ground, the mother said the 25- year-old son, first of her five children, was suddenly struck by the arrow of mute and he became unable to talk since then for nine years.

The devastating problem made Michael a thorn in the flesh as they wasted money and time seeking for elusive solution in different health facilities abroad and in Nigeria, she explained.

They returned to Nigeria with Michael for spiritual help in Zion

Ministry and used the period to actively participate in the 100 days of fasting and prayers, she said.

However, shortly before travelling back to the USA, she visited Evangelist Ebuka Obi with the challenged son for further prayers and counselling in spite of the doubt of his father, an ex-Seminarian.

Luckily, the Evangelist's mere touching of their heads was the beginning of the miracle. This spiritual exercise apparently prompted Michael to profusely throw up in Tunnel Hotel, opposite Zion ground, Okota, Lagos where they lodged, the mother added.

According to her, surprisingly, when they got back to America the next day, the dumb son suddenly and repeatedly shouted, "I am healed! I am healed! And since that day till date, Michael started talking normally, such that his father made up- turn to become a staunch Zionite.

Daddy Gives N.3m to Lady Who Delivered In Zion Ministry Ground

The Spiritual Director of ZPMO, Evangelist Ebuka Obi, showered N300,000 gift to a lady who gave birth on the Zion Ministry's ground while service was ongoing.

The pregnant mother came for normal service, from Ogun state, apparently, to seek God's intervention for safe delivery.

According to her, the Doctor booked her for a Cesarean section once her delivery was due.

But as God had it, while in the service, she entered into unexpected labour which the Zion Ministry noticed and instantly helped her deliver safely without entering any hospital.

Strangely, when her vital signs were checked by the Zion medical Team, her temperature was discovered to be as high as 196/120.

Evangelist Ebuka Obi was visibly happy with the development and hinted of the willingness of the Ministry to adopt the miracle baby.

Instantly, he announced a cash donation of N.3 million for the baby's up- keep to the admiration of the congregation.

Irish Mother Healed Of Stage Four Cancer

Obi, to heal her of stage four breast cancer.

According to her, the healing took place at the 2025 international outreach of ZPMO in Dublin, which she attended with her daughter.

During the power-packed programme, she said that her personal encounter with Daddy through prayer was the healing balm.

According to her, like the Evangelist prophetically pronounced, when she went back to the hospital, tests by Doctors confirmed that the Breast cancer had gone completely.

She returned to Zion Ministry as that one out of the healed ten lepers by Jesus Christ, to show appreciation and honour to God for using the Evangelist for her instant healing.

A woman, Martinez, from Ireland, Dublin has testified of how God through the Spiritual Director of Zion Ministry, Evangelist Ebuka

Lady Located During Open Heavens Exchanging Ring with Someone Gets 'Sarephic Husband'

An Mbaize- born Lady, Miss Nancy Amarachi, has shared the testimony of how she met her missing rib after being located by Daddy during the Open Heavens exchanging a ring with someone.

Her ambition was for God to link her to a God-fearing man as a husband but the devil, for years, kept pushing her to the wrong ones.

According to her, Evangelist Ebuka Obi, located her during the Open Heavens and pin- pointedly prophesied of seeing her exchange a ring with a dream husband.

She recently came to Zion Ministry with a foreigner, described as a 'Seraphic Husband' whose parents have since endorsed their marriage proposal with love.

According to her, she had recorded cycles of heart- broken relationships with prospective suitors in the past despite being faithful to them.

The relationship with non-serious men, at a point, prompted her to go close to God, she added.

Lost Elderly Found Alive After Location In Open Heavens

A middle - aged woman, Mrs Grace Ogochukwu, whose elderly husband got missing on May 8, 2025 has testified that he has been found alive after being located by Daddy Ebuka Obi in OPEN HEAVENS.

The man from Uli, in Ihiala Local government Area, Anambra state, said to be having mental challenges, got missing after the marriage ceremony of his daughter.

She said that Evangelist Ebuka Obi prophetically located his case and assured that he was still alive and would be found hence plans of organising his burial on assumption of being dead should be put on hold.

True to the prophecy, she stated that the lost husband was found alive in a dejected mood.

This was after weeks of endless search with attendant financial and psychological stress on the family.

Jinx Of Barrenness Broken After Eight Years

A lady, from Anambra state, who had undergone the satanic manipulation of 'water-spirit' is currently pregnant after eight years of childlessness.

The Spiritual Director of ZPMO, Evangelist Ebuka Obi, described the lady as a regular participant of the Ministry's Tuesday programme for Awaiting and Pregnant Mothers.

Her case appeared hopeless as the spiritual husband often demobilised the manhood of her physical husband especially during the ovulation period.

The couple almost lost hope and considered the option of adoption rather than face the trauma of insisting on having a biological child.

But their commitment and belief in the efficacy of God eventually gave rise to the present pregnancy expected to be delivered soon.

My brethren, be courageous in affliction!

By Prisca Ikebude

Courage is the ability to face challenges, dangers or difficulties with confidence and determination to remain steadfast and trust God.

It is not your fault that you carry glorious destiny to prosper and take dominion wherever your feet step. It is because you are a descendant of Abraham, God's chosen people. It is as a result of the Covenant that God entered with Abraham to bless his generation, Genesis 1:28.

These blessings attract hatred, envy and jealousy. The devil does not attack nonentities but glory carriers because he has nothing to lose.

In the book of Genesis 12:1-3, God instructed Abraham to leave his father's house to a land where he will bless him.

Abraham did as commanded by God and he was richly blessed. After sometime, his blessings attracted envy and jealousy. He faced oppression in the hands of the philistines, Genesis: 26:1-35. Abraham dug wells but the enemy collected them forcefully due to envy.

The hatred and oppression

continued with Isaac, Abraham's son, because he too was blessed due to the Covenant between God and Abraham.

Isaac, also, dug wells several times but the enemy collected them from him. At the end, because God was with him, he conquered. He found water which he called shebah and the name of the city is Beersheba till today.

My brothers and sisters in the Lord, be courageous no matter the challenges or difficulties you are passing through. Do not be dismayed, it is God that gives us power to make wealth. Always meditate on these words of God, his promises to us as believers: Psalm 24, the earth is of the Lord and the fullness thereof....

*I will overturn, overturn and overturn until it's no more - Ezekiel 21:27

*The Egyptians you see today, you shall see no more..

*I will fight for you and you will hold your peace, Exodus 14:14

Almighty God will surely fight for us as he did for Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Abraham obeyed God, kept his commandments and statutes. Let's, also, be obedient to the words of God and he will bless us. Shalom!

Enugu to host Zion Ministry's first Crusade of 2026 amid broader expansion plan

Rivers State and Italy are among locations expected to follow as the Zion Ministry prepares to host first revival Crusade of 2026 on February 21 at the Nnamdi Azikiwe Stadium, Enugu State. The gathering is expected to draw worshippers from across the Southeast region, other parts of Nigeria, and the international faith community, reflecting the ministry's growing presence among Zionites around the world. Attendees can anticipate a time of heartfelt worship, prayer, teaching, and spiritual renewal as preparations continue to gather momentum ahead of what many view as a significant opening to the ministry's outreach calendar for the year.

Beyond the Enugu gathering, the Spiritual Director, Evangelist Ebuka Obi, has indicated that preparations are underway for additional crusades in Rivers State and Italy, with specific dates and venues yet to be announced. The planned Outreaches reflect a widening evangelistic focus and a sustained commitment to reaching diverse audiences both within Nigeria and internationally.

He further encouraged branches and worshippers across various states to remain prepared and expectant, describing the year as one marked by increased missionary activity. With plans pointing toward Crusades across multiple branches, the Ministry appears poised for a season of broader engagement and strengthened presence in new territories.

Valentine weekend: Zion Ministry sets three-day Singles programme

Zion Ministry has announced a forthcoming Singles Programme scheduled to hold from Friday, February 13, through Sunday, February 15, aligning with the Valentine weekend — a period often associated with expressions of love and social celebration among young people.

Positioned as a meaningful alternative, the three-day gathering is expected to feature insightful teachings tailored for youths and young adults, addressing themes such as friendships, relationships, personal growth, and spiritual development. Deliverance sessions, interactive question-and-answer segments, and other spiritually enriching moments are also anticipated, creating an atmosphere for reflection, clarity, and renewed perspective.

As part of the preparations, the Spiritual Director, Evangelist Ebuka Obi, has encouraged attendees to come with a gift for one person — a gesture intended to promote intentional kindness, generosity, and shared joy within the community. Incorporating a touch of red or white, colors traditionally linked with the season, has also been suggested as a subtle way to reflect the atmosphere of the gathering.

Expected to draw participants from within and beyond the ministry, the programme forms part of ongoing efforts to support individuals navigating the season of singleness with wisdom, confidence, and clarity.

Further details regarding sessions and participation are expected to be communicated in the coming days.

Zion Mothers extend hope, support to inmates at Kirikiri correctional centre

Zion Ministry's Mothers Group has donated a 50-inch Plasma television, 60 copies of the 21 Days Foundational Prayer booklets and N60,000.00 allocated for generator fuel for two months and a commitment to provide fuel till April, 2026 to the Inmates at the Kirikiri Correctional centre, Lagos.

The gesture was a response to the request of the Inmates who received the gifts with joy, gratitude and renewed spiritual enthusiasm.

VOICE OF ZION recalls that last year, the Zion Ministry's Mothers' Group embarked on an evangelical outreach to inmates at the Kirikiri Correctional Centre, Lagos state, as part of their commitment to practical Christianity and soul-winning.

Upon arrival, the delegation was warmly received by the inmates and officials.

The Mothers' Group came bearing goodwill—providing water, food items, toiletries, and other basic amenities—while also ministering through prayers, exhortation and the preaching of the gospel, encouraging inmates with the message of hope and redemption found in Christ.

During the Mothers learnt that a Zion fellowship already existed among the inmates, formed independently within the correctional facility. While the inmates expressed joy at the visit, they also shared their disappointment that, unlike members of other Christian groups who received frequent visits, Zion inmates had not enjoyed consistent fellowship or visitation. The visit of the Zion Mothers therefore came as a profound encouragement and answer to prayer.

As part of the outreach, the Mothers also presented 100 Days Fasting and Prayer booklets to the inmates, even though the program had already commenced at the time. The gesture was warmly appreciated and received with gratitude.

Following prayers and fellowship, the Zion inmates made a heartfelt request for assistance to enable them continue following the Night of Open Heaven programme, which airs nightly at 11:00 p.m. on Facebook and YouTube. Specifically, they requested a television set and support for generator fuel, which would allow them participate fully in the prophetic programme despite the limitations of their environment.

The Zion Mothers listened, acknowledged the request, and promised to act.

True to their word, in January 2026, just two days before the commencement of the 21 Days Foundational Prayers, the Zion Mothers returned to Kirikiri with the gifts.

This outreach stands as a powerful expression of practical evangelism—preaching Christ with words, compassion, consistency and sacrifice.

God awaits you and your babies on Tuesdays at Zion Ministry. This is especially so if you are pregnant or you are an expectant mother. It is the place to be and have spiritual contact with God through his anointed vessel.

Tuesday is officially set aside in Zion Prayer Movement Outreach for pregnant and intending mothers. It is also a day for free spiritual clinic for believers. Of course, you have to be legally married to facilitate answers to your prayers offered at the meeting which commences by 10 a.m. every Tuesday. You need to arm yourself with Seraphic water, oil and other religious sacramentals for necessary action.

The venue is the Lagos ground of Zion Ministry at Ago, Okota. Mostly presided over by Evangelist Ebuka Obi, the Spiritual Director of ZPMO, the solemn gathering which is characterised by fervent prayers, deliverance, counselling and healing sessions has become a fertile ground for destiny children.

The woman who believes in the efficacy of prayers as a potent solution to all human problems hardly misses the Tuesday clinic. Two hours ahead the starting time, she must be amongst the numerous women jostling for vantage positions in the Zion sanctuary. She comes early, full of expectations, to engage in private prayers at the Grottos inside the Zion buildings. This is usually done in firm preparation for the day's intercessory spiritual exercise.

Being a non- denominational ministry, the programme is open to any woman in need of divine intervention in her marital challenges. Her tribe, religion, and denomination are immaterial. She comes with high hopes to commune with God, her creator. Sure, He did not create her barren. Indeed, nobody is created to be childless! And God has made you to, among other things, increase, multiply and replenish the earth. Spiritual and artificial manipulations cannot change one's destiny.

VOICE OF ZION was at one of the Tuesday programmes for interactions and our findings were exciting and revealing.

Mrs Ifeoma Ndukwe, one of the attendees, said, "I don't play with the Tuesday programme. After years of barrenness, I was introduced to the life-changing clinic by a friend, and God answered my prayers in months."

Another lady who spoke with us noted that the Tuesday spiritual clinic adequately complements her weekly antenatal clinic at the hospital. According to her, probable complications during and after pregnancy are spiritually and medically identified and removed before the day of child delivery through the two important clinics. All hidden challenges are prophetically revealed and nipped in the bud before the labour day at the Tuesday clinic, she added.

Mrs Funmi Olaitan, who attends Zion Ministry's Tuesday programme regularly, disclosed that her spiritual problems were resolved and that paved the way for easy conception after waiting for years and blaming her husband for the childlessness. "At the programme, if need be, a pregnant woman can be referred to hospitals for tests and necessary medications in addition to spiritual support.

It was observed that some husbands accompany their wives to the weekly programme. In an interview, one of such male participants confessed that the Tuesday programme has helped to cleanse him of identified medical and spiritual obstacles to his becoming a father.

The Tuesday date is an appointment with God, while Evangelist Ebuka Obi is evidently being divinely used to deliver participants from man-made and spiritual bondages.

At every programme, many of those whose prayers are answered through the intervention of the Servant of God file out to share their awesome testimonies. No doubt, there is an endless flow of fertility and favour at Zion Ministry. Satanic agreements are scattered. Impossibilities are converted into possibilities.

So, today is the day you need to make up your mind to go to the right place for your marital challenges. And the place to visit is Zion Ministry. It could be before or after seeing your Medical Doctor. The choice is yours. But the earlier you take that wise decision, the better. You must act fast to save your cherished marriage.

“ Being a non- denominational ministry, the programme is open to any woman in need of divine intervention in her marital challenges. Her tribe, religion, and denomination are immaterial. She comes with high hopes to commune with God, her creator. Sure, He did not create her barren. Indeed, nobody is created to be childless! And God has made you to, among other things, increase, multiply and replenish the earth. Spiritual and artificial manipulations cannot change one's destiny. ”
